- d. If your tenancy is less than three years, or you have not lived in the premises for the full three year term of the tenancy, or the decoration was not made in line with the method statement you must repair or pay the reasonable costs of repairing any damage, marks or holes caused by, or as a result of removing any fixings or not complying with 47b above.
- e. If your tenancy is for three years and you lived in the premises for the full term of the tenancy as long as you made the changes in line with the method statement clause (d) will not apply.
- f. If your tenancy is for less than three years, you must repair or pay us the reasonable costs of repairing any damage, marks or holes caused by, or as a result of, removing any fixings or not complying with 47a above. If we have to do this because you fail to, we will be entitled to recover from you the costs we have had to pay.
- g. Clause E47d will not apply if your tenancy is for three years and you have lived there for the full term of the tenancy as long as you were given written permission to make the changes and these were made in line with the method statement.

48. WASHING MACHINES AND TUMBLE DRYERS

You cannot make any claim against us for any compensation for any loss or damage caused as a result of the washer-dryer breaking down or damaging your belongings.

49. CLAIMS FOR FOOD IN YOUR FREEZER

You cannot make any claim against us for any compensation for any loss or inconvenience you suffer if the fridge or freezer (if you have either or both of these) breaks down and causes your food to defrost or become unfit to eat.

50. CLAIMS RELATING TO LIFTS IN YOUR BLOCK

You cannot make any claim against us for compensation if:

- a lift in the block cannot be used or breaks down;
- you or someone else has an accident caused by a lift; or
- the lift stops working and we are not responsible for putting it right.

51. OTHER CLAIMS

Unless it is covered by insurance, you cannot claim against us for compensation for:

- any damage our agents, workmen or other staff cause;
- a fault in any pipes, staircase or anything in the premises or block;
- any inconvenience you suffer when we carry out work to the premises, the block or in the neighbourhood (including work to premises next door or blocks and buildings we own nearby), such as decorating or carrying out repairs or alterations (structural or non-structural), retails fit-out works and building development works; or
- any effect that the lift or other aspect of the block construction or insulation has on your TV or other electrical or telecommunications equipment.

52. NOTICES

You must give us copies of any notices, documents, proceedings or letters which relate to the premises as soon as you receive them.

53. INFESTATIONS

During the tenancy you must take reasonable measures to keep the premises free of vermin (for example, mice), fleas or parasites. If the premises become infested because of something you have or have not done, you will have to pay the appropriate costs of putting this right and cleaning any parts of the premises which are affected.

54. DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES

You must not keep at the premises or any part of the property, block or neighbourhood, any dangerous fluids fuels or materials or those which are flammable, smelly or could cause contamination, or which may not keep to fire regulations, or which may cause harm to the environment or human health.

55. SMOKING

You must not smoke tobacco, electronic cigarettes or any other substance, or allow any person in your household or your guests to smoke, in the block or plot or neighbourhood shared areas including, but not limited to patios, winter gardens, balconies, entrances, lifts, corridors, stairs, internal courtyards, courtyards and roof gardens and car parking areas.

56. CARPETS

You may put down loose carpets or rugs and use anti-slip mats on the floors of the premises. You must not put down carpets which are fitted using any adhesive or nails. You will have to pay the costs of repairing any damage caused to the wooden flooring as a result of you failing to keep to this clause.

57. PAYMENTS MADE ON YOUR BEHALF

If someone else pays us rent on your behalf, we will use this money in relation to this tenancy only. In no circumstances will we use this money to create a new tenancy for any other person.

58. GIVING NOTICE AT THE END OF THE FIXED TERM

You must give us at least one month's notice in writing when you want to end the tenancy at the end of the fixed term. The notice must not end before the last date of the tenancy set out in clause B4 and must end on the day before the rent is due. You will still be legally responsible for paying the rent and for all other responsibilities under this agreement until the notice ends and you have moved out of the premises. (To end the tenancy before the end of the fixed term, see Part H clause 5).

AT THE END OF THE TENANCY:

59. FORWARDING ADDRESS

Just before or immediately after the tenancy ends, you must give Get Living London your new address so that we can contact you after you have left the premises. You agree that Get Living London may give this forwarding address to the council tax authority and any suppliers of electricity, fuel, water, heating and hot water, telephone services, environmental services or other similar services at the premises you are responsible for.

60. WHEN THE TENANCY ENDS

- a. You must arrange and pay for the premises to be cleaned to the same standard it was in at the beginning of the tenancy, as shown in the inventory. This includes washing or dry cleaning (including ironing and pressing) all curtains, upholstery and soft furnishings and other items set out in the inventory and cleaning any carpets shown in the inventory (if they have been marked during the tenancy), as well as all kitchen appliances (such as cookers and fridges/freezers) inside and out, all bathrooms, toilets and shower rooms, fixture and fittings. Or, you must pay a fair amount towards the cost of the cleaning. As long as you have cleaned the property to the standard given above, within an agreed time-scale and left the premises with nothing other than "fair wear and tear", we will not charge you for the extra professional cleaning needed after you have left.
- b. You must leave all our furniture and fittings (as shown in the inventory) in a good, clean condition (apart from reasonable wear and tear) in the same rooms as they were in when you moved in.
- c. We may serve a notice of repairs. If this applies you must pay us for the cost of any repair we have to pay for any damage to the premises including the repair to any wall or other surfaces on which you have hung photographs, pictures, posters and so on (see clause E47) or to our furniture and fittings (including replacing them, if necessary) if you, a member of your household or one of your guests caused the damage.
- d. You must pay the cost of redecorating or wallpapering any rooms or part of the premises which you decorated or changed without written permission from Get Living London.
- e. You must arrange for any electricity, heating and water meters to be read immediately before the end of the tenancy and pay any outstanding amounts you owe the utility companies who provide these services. You must also pay any telephone, internet, media companies and the council tax authority for charges up to and including the day the tenancy ends.
- f. You must arrange to return any television or other equipment or appliance you have hired or rented to the company you rented it from.
- g. You must give the premises back to us and return the keys/fobs and any car-park and secure bicycle cage fobs (if you have any) at the end of the tenancy to the place or person we have agreed with you.
- h. You must remove your personal belongings and any rubbish from the premises, block, plot or neighbourhood, and leave the premises and our furniture, fixtures and fittings in good condition. You also agree that if you leave any personal belongings in the premises at the end of the tenancy we can choose to either:
 - charge you rent at the rate set out in this agreement until you remove your personal belongings and hand back all the keys to the premises and the block, or
 - remove and store these items for up to one calendar month, and take all reasonable steps to contact you about this. We will not do this if it is clear that you have deliberately left the items. If the items are not collected within one calendar month, we may dispose of them and you will have to pay the reasonable costs of this, which we may take from any sale proceeds if this applies. If you still owe us money after doing this, you will be legally responsible for paying us this.
- i. You must pay us any extra costs we have to pay if we cannot check the inventory until you have removed your personal belongings.
- j. If your tenancy period is three years and you have lived there for the full term of the tenancy, some of the above charges may not apply because of clause E34e or E47e or any of the special terms in Part C that may apply.

F. OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

WE AGREE TO DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. CLEANING

We will make sure the premises are in a clean and tidy condition before your tenancy starts and make sure all appliances are in good condition and working properly.

2. COSTS OF PREPARING THIS AGREEMENT

We will pay all costs for preparing this agreement and any renewal documents in relation to this tenancy. You do not pay a charge for us to prepare this agreement, see clause D4.

3. OTHER PAYMENTS FOR THE PREMISES

We will pay any other bills for the premises during the tenancy except any amount which you have to pay under part E of this agreement.

4. RENT INCREASE

We will increase the rent every year on the anniversary of the tenancy start date in line with any increase in the Consumer Prices Index (CPI) over the last complete period of 12 months for which CPI figures have been published at least ten working days before that anniversary. Should the Consumer Prices Index decrease to a negative percentage the rent will remain at the same figure for the subsequent 12 months as has been paid in the preceding 12 months. On the expiry of this fixed term agreement, regardless of the length of tenancy, the rent for any subsequent tenancy shall be in line with the then market rent of the Premises.

5. OUR APPLIANCES

We will take reasonable steps to make sure the heating and hot water appliance, electrical appliances, and other similar mechanical appliances in the premises for which we are responsible, work properly. If they need repairing, we will do so as long as the repairs are needed as a result of reasonable wear and tear.

6. REPAIRS

Section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 as amended by Section 116 of the Housing Act 1988 applies to this agreement. This means that we are responsible for repairing and maintaining the installations in the premises which supply water, and electricity, and any sanitary-ware (basins, sinks, baths, toilet bowls, cisterns, showers and so on), but not other fixtures, fittings and appliances for using water, or electricity. We will repair and maintain the installations in the premises for general heating, cooking and heating water. We will take account of the age and character of the premises to decide what level of repair we need to carry out.

7. WHAT WE DO NOT HAVE TO REPAIR

- a. We will not have to pay to repair anything if you are responsible for the repair. We may carry out the work and charge the cost to you.
- b. We will not have to repair the premises if they are totally destroyed or damaged by a storm or flood.
- c. We will not have to repair anything which you are entitled to remove from the premises.

8. QUIETLY ENJOYING THE PREMISES

We will allow you to quietly enjoy the tenancy. This means you can live in your home without any illegal interruption from us (or others on our behalf) as long as you have paid the rent and carried out your responsibilities as set out in this agreement.

9. INSURANCE

We will keep the premises and our contents (if any) insured for any amounts we feel appropriate. We will insure the premises against fire and other risks normally covered by a comprehensive household insurance policy and any other risks we consider necessary.

10. IF YOU CANNOT LIVE IN THE PREMISES - SUSPENDING YOUR RENT

If the insurers consider that you cannot live in the premises because it has been damaged by any insured risk and the damage is not your fault, or the damage was not the result of something you have or have not done (we call this negligence), you will not have to pay any rent until you can live in the premises again. Or, you may give us written notice to end the tenancy immediately. If you end the tenancy we will pay you any rent you have paid to us for any period after the end of the tenancy.

11. NOT PAYING YOU COMPENSATION

We will not pay you any compensation or provide alternative accommodation if you cannot live in the premises and we have told you that you do not have to pay us rent until you can live in the premises again.

12. SUSPENDING PART OF THE RENT

If you cannot live in or use part of the premises you will not have to pay a percentage of the rent until the whole premises are fit to live in again. The calculation of this percentage will be appropriate in relation to the nature and extent of the damage.

13. ARBITRATION

If Get Living London and you cannot agree on a percentage to pay under clause F12 above, we may use arbitration to sort the matter out, as long as you and we agree to do so and we both agree to share any costs involved. This clause does not affect either our or your rights to take a dispute to the courts in the usual way.

14. ENDING THE TENANCY AT THE END OF THE FIXED TERM

The Housing Act 1988 says that we or Get Living London must give you at least two months' notice in writing to get the property back at the end of the fixed term of the tenancy. The notice we serve cannot end before the end of the fixed term shown in B4 of this agreement. You must leave the property at the end of the notice period.

15. ENERGY PERFORMANCE CERTIFICATE

We will have given you a valid energy performance certificate relating to the premises before you signed this tenancy agreement in line with the requirements of the Energy Performance of Buildings (Certificates and Inspections) (England and Wales) Order 2007.

16. LEGIONNAIRES DISEASE

We confirm that we believe the Premises are safe and free from legionella bacteria at the start of the tenancy.

G. INVENTORY AND CONDITION OF THE PREMISES

WE AND YOU AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

1. PRODUCING AN INVENTORY

We will be responsible for arranging and paying for an inventory and description of the condition of the premises.

2. CHARGE FOR CHECKING THE INVENTORY

We will be responsible for paying the charge to check the inventory at the start and at the end of the tenancy.

3. CHECKING AND ACCEPTING THE INVENTORY

We will send you a copy of the inventory electronically at the start and end of the tenancy. You will have seven working days to check the inventory, make any comments and digitally sign and return it to us. If you do not do this within seven working days we will take this to mean that you agree to the inventory and description of the condition of the premises as being a true and full record at the time it was made.

4. MISSING THE INVENTORY CHECK AT THE END OF THE TENANCY

If you do not keep an appointment to check the inventory at the end of the tenancy we will assume that you agree to accept what we find when we check the inventory.

SAMPLE CONTRACT

PART H THE DEPOSIT

The deposit will be held by Get Living London until the end of your tenancy and is protected by The Dispute Service, 1 The Progression Centre, 42 Mark Road, Hemel Hempstead, HP2 7DW. Any interest the deposit earns will belong to Get Living London.

1. Purpose of the deposit

We have taken the deposit for the following purposes.

- To cover any damage, or compensation for damage, to the Premises, its fixtures and fittings or the building (subject to allowance for fair wear and tear) and for missing items you may be legally responsible (allowing for the age and condition of each item at the start of the tenancy and repairs that are our responsibility).
- To pay the reasonable costs of compensating us for, or for putting right, any situation where you have significantly broken your responsibilities under the tenancy agreement, including those relating to cleaning the Premises, its fixtures and fittings.
- To cover any unpaid accounts for utilities or water charges, environmental services or other similar services or council tax at the Premises which you are legally responsible for.
- To cover any rent or other money due under the tenancy agreement which we have made you aware of but which you have still not paid after the end of the tenancy.
- The deposit will not limit your legal responsibility under the agreement and you will still have to pay rent and other outgoings when they are due during the tenancy.

2. Changing tenants during the tenancy

We will not refund the deposit or any part of the deposit before the end of the tenancy if one or more of the tenants move out during the tenancy term. A transfer of the tenancy under Part C clause 1 will not affect the way we deal with the deposit (as explained in clause 3 below). If, at the time of the transfer, you want to get back some or all of your deposit you must make arrangements with your fellow tenants. We will not get involved in such arrangements.

3. At the end of the tenancy

- Notice of amounts we plan to take from your deposit
Within 10 working days after the end of the tenancy, Get Living London will tell you whether we plan to take any amounts from the deposit under the terms of the tenancy agreement.
- Giving you back the deposit
If there is no dispute about what amount of deposit we plan to return, Get Living London will keep or repay the deposit or a percentage of the deposit, according to the agreed deductions and the conditions of the tenancy agreement. We will pay the deposit, or any balance of it, within 10 working days of Get Living London agreeing with you the amount of the deposit you will receive back. If the deposit is not enough to pay everything you owe, you will have to pay the extra amount.
- Disputes
If you do not agree about how much deposit you should receive back, you or we can refer the matter to the tenancy deposit protection scheme for a decision. Both you and we must agree to keep to their decision. If you are joint tenants, you all need to agree which one of you may deal with and consent on behalf of all the others to use alternative dispute resolution through the Dispute Service.
- Within 10 working days after receiving the notice described in part H clause 3a above, you should tell Get Living London in writing if you plan to dispute any of the deductions we are planning to take from your deposit. If there is more than one tenant, you will have to agree among yourselves to use the alternative dispute resolution (ADR) through the tenancy deposit protection scheme to deal with any dispute about the deposit at the end of the tenancy.
- Legal rights – If no claim for alternative dispute resolution (ADR) is made within three months after the end of the tenancy, you and we will need to negotiate a settlement or use some other way of dealing with the dispute (for example, court proceedings).
- Our and your legal right to take legal action through the county court is not affected by the clauses above.
- If the amount in dispute is over £5,000, we and you must agree to formal arbitration using an arbitrator appointed by the independent case examiner (ICE) for the deposit scheme approved by the Government. However, if we and you agree in writing, the ICE may decide to accept the dispute for adjudication. If an arbitrator is appointed, there will be an administration fee which will be fixed by the board of The Dispute Scheme. We and you will have to share the costs and the arbitrator will decide on who will have to pay any further costs.

I. ENDING THE TENANCY

1. OUR RIGHT TO ENTER THE PROPERTY - KNOWN AS FORFEITURE

The Protection from Eviction Act 1977 protects you from us ending your tenancy immediately. It says we must get a court order to repossess (take back) the premises if you break the tenancy and you have failed to put right or sort out the problem in a reasonable time.

If you are not sure about your rights or you need more information to help you understand this clause, you should get advice from a solicitor or your local Citizens Advice bureau.

We are entitled to repossess the premises as outlined above, and this tenancy will end immediately, if you:

- a. do not pay all or any of the rent 14 days after it was due, whether or not we have formally asked you to pay it;
- b. do not keep to any significant agreement or major responsibility in this agreement;
- c. have a bankruptcy order made against you or your guarantor, or you transfer your estate or sign any deed of arrangement for the benefit of your creditors; or
- d. leave the premises and do not mean to return.

2. GROUNDS FOR GRANTING POSSESSION

A court will grant us possession if any of the circumstances mentioned in the following grounds (reasons) shown in the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) applies:

At both the time that we give notice that we will start court proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings you are still:

- a. at least eight weeks behind with your rent if you pay rent every week or every fortnight;
- b. at least two months behind with your rent if you pay rent every month;
- c. at least three months behind with your rent if you pay rent every three months; or
- d. at least three months behind with your rent if you pay your rent each year.

3. POSSIBLE GROUNDS FOR GRANTING POSSESSION

The court might grant us possession in the following circumstances:

Ground 10

At both the time we give notice that we will start court proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings you owe some rent.

Ground 11

You have a history of often being behind with your rent.

Ground 12

You have broken one or more of your responsibilities under the tenancy agreement.

Ground 13

The condition of the premises or the shared areas of the building which the premises is part of has deteriorated because of your behaviour or that of any other person living there.

Ground 14

You, or someone living in or visiting the premises, have been guilty of causing a nuisance or annoying neighbours. Or, a person living with or visiting you has been convicted of using the premises, or allowing it to be used, for illegal purposes or has committed an offence which they can be arrested for in the premises or in an area near the premises.

Ground 15

The condition of the furniture has deteriorated because it has been badly treated by you or someone living at the premises.

Ground 17

We gave the tenancy to you after you or a person acting on your instructions gave a false statement.

If any of these conditions apply to you, we may re-enter the premises and the tenancy will end.

4. GIVING NOTICE AT THE END OF THE FIXED TERM

Your Notice: You must give us at least one month's notice in writing when you want to end the tenancy at the end of the fixed term – see clause E58. The notice must not end before the last date of the tenancy set out in clause B4 and must end on the day before the rent is due. You will still be legally responsible for paying the rent and for all other responsibilities under this agreement until the notice ends and you have moved out of the premises.

Our Notice: We must give you at least two months' notice in writing under Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 to bring the tenancy to an end at the end of the fixed term of the tenancy as set out in clause B4. See clause F14.

5. GIVING NOTICE BEFORE THE END OF THE FIXED TERMTENANT BREAK CLAUSE

If you want to end the tenancy before the end of the fixed term stated at clause B4, at any date after the first six months of your tenancy have elapsed, you may give us two months' written notice of your intention to end the tenancy.

You must continue to pay the rent up to the expiry date of your notice (being the date that you state in your notice that you want the tenancy to end) or the date that you vacate the Premises, whichever is the later.

On or before the expiry date of your notice, you must vacate the Premises and return possession of it to us or Get Living London.

Where you are more than one person, in order to end the tenancy early under this clause, your notice must be given by or on behalf of all of the tenants and signed by all of the tenants.

WHAT IS TDS?

The Tenancy Deposit Scheme (TDS) is run by The Dispute Service Ltd. It is an insurance-backed tenancy deposit protection scheme authorised by the government.

TDS HAS TWO MAIN ROLES:

- To protect deposits.
- To help resolve disputes about deposits.

WHAT IS TENANCY DEPOSIT PROTECTION?

Tenancy deposit protection applies to all deposits for Assured Shorthold tenancies that Started in England or Wales on or after 6 April 2007. By law, a landlord or agent who receives a deposit for such a tenancy must protect the deposit.

Most residential tenancies in the private rented sector are Assured Shorthold tenancies, with some exceptions. For example, a tenancy cannot be an Assured Shorthold tenancy if:

- the tenant is a company;
- the rent is more than £100,000 a year;
- the tenancy is for a holiday let; or
- a university or college rents the accommodation to its students.

TENANCY DEPOSIT PROTECTION MEANS:

- protecting a tenant's deposit with a government-authorised scheme such as TDS;
- providing the tenant with prescribed information about where their deposit is being protected and how it will be managed.

TENANCY DEPOSIT PROTECTION SCHEMES CAN BE ONE OF TWO KINDS:

- Custodial – this is where the scheme itself holds the deposit during the tenancy.
- Insurance backed – this is where the landlord or agent holds the deposit during the tenancy, but must give it to the scheme at the end of the tenancy if there is a dispute. The scheme is insured because this guarantees that tenants will always get back the money to which they are entitled. TDS is an insurance-backed scheme.

Each tenancy deposit scheme has its own rules setting out in detail how it operates. The TDS Rules are available from the TDS website and on request.

WHAT ARE THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS?

These are contained in sections 212–215 of, and Schedule 10 to, the Housing Act 2004 (as amended). Tenancy deposit protection applies to money received by a landlord or agent that is meant to be held as security in case a tenant does not comply with their obligations.

The landlord or agent must comply with the initial requirements of an authorised tenancy deposit protection scheme within 30 days of receiving the deposit. To protect a deposit with TDS, the landlord or agent needs to belong to the scheme, register the deposit on the TDS tenancy database, and pay a membership subscription or deposit protection charge.

A TDS member (landlord or agent) must also give the tenant 'prescribed information'. This information is set out in the Housing (Tenancy Deposits (Prescribed Information) Order 2007. It must also be given to anyone who paid the deposit on the tenant's behalf.

The prescribed information includes the contact details of the landlord and tenant, the rented property's address, the deposit amount and this leaflet. The landlord or agent must also specify which tenancy agreement clauses say how the deposit can be used.

TENANTS MUST BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

- check any document the landlord provides containing prescribed information; and
- sign it to confirm the information is accurate.

WHAT IF THE LANDLORD OR AGENT DOES NOT COMPLY?

A landlord or agent should protect the deposit in an authorised scheme and provide the tenant (and any sponsor) with the prescribed information within 30 days of receiving the deposit. If they don't do so, then the tenant (or the person who paid the deposit) can take the landlord or agent to court. The court can order the landlord or agent to protect the deposit or repay it to the tenant. The court can also order the landlord or agent to pay the tenant compensation of between one and three times the deposit's value.

A landlord who has not correctly protected a deposit cannot serve a notice to end the tenancy and regain possession of it under section 21 of the Housing Act 1988. The landlord can only serve such a 'section 21 notice' after the deposit has been repaid or after any court case about the deposit has ended.

A landlord who has not given the tenant prescribed information within 30 days must not issue a section 21 notice until the prescribed information has been given. If this takes place more than 30 days after the landlord or agent received the deposit, the tenant can still apply to court for compensation of between one and three times the deposit's value.

TDS cannot award compensation to tenants if a landlord or agent fails to comply with the law relating to tenancy deposit protection. This can only be dealt with by the courts.

IS MY DEPOSIT PROTECTED?

Tenants can check if their deposit is registered with TDS by visiting www.tenancydepositscheme.com. If tenants have received a Tenancy Deposit Protection Certificate, they should enter the code number from that certificate. Alternatively they can enter their surname, the deposit amount, the tenancy postcode, and the date their tenancy started.

If a member informs TDS that the protection of a deposit should be ended, TDS will make reasonable efforts to inform the tenant before ending the protection.

If the tenancy has not ended, the tenant (or one of the joint tenants) can object to the ending of deposit protection by phoning the TDS customer contact centre.

If the tenancy has ended and the tenant is not satisfied with the proposed split of the deposit, then the tenant can ask TDS to resolve the dispute within three months after the end of the tenancy.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE DEPOSIT AFTER THE LANDLORD OR AGENT RECEIVES IT?

The landlord or the agent will hold the deposit during the tenancy. The tenancy agreement should state who receives any interest it makes.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE DEPOSIT AT THE END OF THE TENANCY?

If there is no dispute about the return of the deposit at the end of the tenancy, the landlord or agent must pay the deposit to the tenant without delay, less any deductions that the tenant has agreed.

If there is a dispute about the return of the deposit or about proposed deductions, the parties should try to reach agreement without delay. Most disputes are resolved informally in this way. But if the deposit has not been returned to the tenant within 10 days of the tenant asking for it, any of the parties can ask TDS to resolve the dispute.

IF THERE IS A DISPUTE, WHAT HAPPENS TO THE DEPOSIT?

The landlord or agent can make a payment from the deposit if:

- both landlord and tenant have agreed; or
- the court has ordered the deposit to be paid; or
- TDS directs them to send the money to TDS.

Once TDS has been asked to resolve a deposit dispute, the landlord or the agent must send the disputed amount to TDS. By this time, the landlord or agent should have paid the tenant any part of the deposit that is not an agreed deduction or in dispute.

If whoever is holding the deposit does not send the disputed deposit amount to TDS, TDS will take legal action to recover it. This will not delay TDS in resolving the dispute. If the deposit holder cannot pay the disputed amount, for example because it has become insolvent, TDS will arrange the adjudication, pay the tenant the amount awarded by the adjudicator and make a claim to its insurers. The law requires TDS to guarantee only that the tenant receives the amount they are entitled to.

HOW ARE DISPUTES RESOLVED?

The person who wishes to send the dispute to TDS can do this online or by completing a Dispute Application Form giving details of the dispute, and any relevant supporting documents.

The deposit holder must then send the disputed amount to TDS. It will copy the dispute details to the other parties and give them 10 working days to consent to TDS resolving the dispute, respond to the claim, and send in their evidence.

If all the parties agree to TDS resolving the dispute, TDS will appoint an impartial adjudicator to make a binding decision, normally within 28 days of receiving the parties' consent to resolving the dispute. If landlords and agents do not reply, they are treated as consenting. In all these cases, the adjudicator will normally make a decision within 28 days after the deadline for giving evidence.

Within a further 10 days of the adjudicator's decision, TDS will pay the amount due to each party.

The adjudicator's decision will be based only on the evidence sent to TDS – there will be no hearing or visit to the property.

The adjudicator's decision is final. There is no right of appeal to TDS or to the government department in charge of the tenancy deposit protection schemes.

Further details are set out in The Tenancy Deposit Scheme Rules for the Independent Resolution of Tenancy Deposit Disputes at www.tenancydepositscheme.com.

WHAT IF THE LANDLORD OR TENANT CAN'T BE CONTACTED AT THE END OF THE TENANCY?

TDS cannot resolve a dispute if it cannot contact the parties to get their consent to TDS being involved. In these circumstances, the deposit holder must do the following:

- Make every practical effort – over a reasonable period of time but not for longer than it would take TDS to resolve a dispute – to contact the (ex)-tenant/landlord using information readily available.
- Assess any damage, rent arrears and any other likely deductions from the deposit as they would normally do.
- Split the deposit, pay the party who is present the appropriate amount, and transfer the amount due to the absent tenant/landlord to a suitably chosen 'Client suspense (bank) account'.

The deposit holder should make a formal record of these activities and support it with suitable documents.

After enough time (usually at least six years) has passed from the last contact with the absent tenant/landlord, the deposit holder may then donate the absent party's share to a suitable registered charity – subject to a binding promise from the deposit holder that it would immediately pay from its own pocket any valid claim it later received from the beneficial or legal owner.

If the absent tenant/landlord returns within that time and seeks to dispute the allocation of the deposit, TDS may offer to adjudicate.

IS ADJUDICATION BETTER THAN GOING TO COURT?

Deposit disputes need to be resolved quickly and cheaply. Tenants usually need the money as a deposit on their next property, and landlords need to know how much will be available to spend on things like redecoration, damage or repairs. Going to court takes time and can be expensive and stressful.

If TDS protects a deposit and the dispute goes to court, the disputed amount must be sent to TDS. TDS will distribute the deposit once it receives a final court order showing what is to happen to the deposit.

TDS can only resolve a dispute if the deposit has been registered with TDS. If a deposit has not been registered, the parties will have to go to court if they cannot agree a settlement.

Sometimes landlords or tenants prefer to go to court. It might be better for a landlord to go to court if they have a big claim that is well above the deposit. It might be better for a tenant to go to court if they have a counterclaim – say if they had to pay for boiler repairs because the heating did not work for several weeks. TDS cannot deal with counterclaims.

Where TDS cannot accept a dispute for adjudication, TDS will notify any other party to the dispute that this has happened. The other party to the dispute may then choose to go to court or rely on the agent's judgment if the agent is holding the deposit.

WHAT CAN TDS DEAL WITH?

Using the TDS dispute resolution service is not compulsory. If either the landlord or tenant does not agree to use the service, one of them could choose to go to court.

TDS can only deal with disputes about the deposit itself, and cannot make awards that are for more than the disputed deposit. If a larger amount is disputed, you may need to go to court. TDS cannot deal with counterclaims by tenants – such as a claim for disrepair. If you are a tenant and you wish to bring a counterclaim against your landlord, you will need to go to court.

TDS cannot deal with disputes between individual tenants, or between landlords and their agents. TDS does not act as a regulator and cannot order changes in trading practices, close down businesses, or prosecute landlords or agents. However, it does try to raise standards in the private rented sector by educating tenants, landlords and agents about the cause of disputes and how to avoid them.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

TDS is funded by the membership subscriptions and deposit protection charges that letting agents and landlords pay. All these fees are on the TDS website.

TDS makes no charge to tenants for protecting the deposit – although landlords or agents may pass on their subscriptions to their tenants as part of the tenancy costs. There is no charge to landlords, tenants or agents for having a dispute resolved.

WHO CAN JOIN THE TENANCY DEPOSIT SCHEME?

The Tenancy Deposit Scheme is open to landlords and letting agents offering residential property for rent. They will be asked to provide relevant information – as set out in the TDS Rules – to TDS before it decides whether they can be accepted as a member, and what their subscription will be.

OUR GUARANTEE OF IMPARTIALITY

TDS is overseen by a Board, which is responsible for operating and financing the business. The Board, and the TDS management, have no role in resolving disputes and cannot intervene in decisions about disputes. The scheme's Head of Adjudication is responsible for resolving disputes. The most usual method for resolving a dispute through TDS is to use adjudication but the scheme may suggest negotiation, mediation or other methods.

Adjudicators work fairly and impartially. All TDS adjudicators belong to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and comply with our Adjudicator Code of Conduct, which is available on the TDS website. The adjudicators make decisions without favour, based on the issues in dispute and the evidence provided.

TDS publishes breakdowns of awards in its Annual Reports. These give an overview of how Awards are split between tenants, landlords and agents. You can see the adjudicators' decision-making guidelines and some example case studies at www.tenancydepositscheme.com.

DATA PROTECTION

TDS will not use landlords' or tenants' personal data for any purpose except to operate the scheme (this includes compiling statistical data) and resolve disputes. From time to time, TDS may invite landlords or tenants to participate in surveys. If you do not wish to be contacted for survey purposes, please inform TDS by letter or email to the contact details given in this leaflet.
